THE NEW BUILDING OF THE MUSEUM OF ART FORMALLY PRESENTED TO THE TRUSTEES-AN ADDRESS OF CONGRATULATION-RE-VIEWING ITS HISTORY.

For the first time at its annual reception the litan Museum of Art was yesterday able to sceive all its invited guests under its own roof withinconveniently erowding them. The drives of the Museum were kined with carriages during the alternoon, and themsends of visitors througed the willing to the our asce. In the math hall of the older building a platform had been exceed for the trustees and the speakers who were to take part in the exercises attending the opening of the new building. The north gallery, overlooking the platform, J. G. Porter, A. M. Palmedo, Mrs. L. C. Clarke, Mrs. Thursteen, Mrs. C. Clarke, Mrs. J. G. Porter, A. M. Palmedo, Mrs. A. T. Sullivan, J. G. Porter, A. M. Mayor Hewitt spoke only a moment, expressing the pleasure he felt in participating in a measure which nust prove of far reaching benefit to the city, as the widening of the work of the Museum with its new building must prove. He said that he hoped the time would soon come when the Museum would be open to the public not simply six days, but every day the week, including Sunday, so that there might be no bar to all those who desired to enjoy its collections. His remarks were received with applause by listeners, who then dispersed through the building.

After the exercises the visitors promenaded at will through the galleries of the building until 5 e'clock. The attendance was the largest that has been at any of the receptions which the Museum has given, and the trustees and the director-general, Louis P. M. DE LESSEPS REGARDED AS A MARTYR IN PARIS AND IN FRANCE-INDIGNATION AGAINST THE DEPUTIES WHO DEFEATED THE PANA-MA BILL.

Berlin, Dec. 18.-Interest in African affairs is, for the moment, all centred in the fate of Emin Pacha and Henry M. Stanley. Lieutenant Wissmann, at a pub position at Wadelai formed a wall which separated the Arabs of the Soudan from these of the South, and that if the wall collapsed the whole Arab movement would be so strongthened that it would require a hundred fold greater sacrifices to master it. The greates doubt is thrown here on the report that Stanley has been captured. It is argued that the alleged fight must have taken place between the third and fifth degrees of north lasitude, between Lado and Wadelai. The distance to Omdurman, Osman Digna's headquarters, is 1,200 miles, and thence to Suakim take four months to cover the entire distance. The result of the discussions of the Emin relief committee wever, is the postponement of the departure of Licutenant Wissman until definite news has been obtained of Emin's fate, Lieutenant Wissmann urging that if the news of Emin's capture were true important modifications of his plans would be necessary. The Emin committee still has no news tending either to confirm or to discredit the Osman letter. All the news received here has emanated from London.

SYMPATHY FOR COUNT DE LESSEPS Paris, Dec. 18 .- A notable result of the Panania anal collapse is that both here and in the provinces all the anger and disappointment of the investors is directed against Parliament, while sympathy is extended to M. de Lesseps. On the other hand, there is every indication that when the Deputies who voted against the bill come forward

The feeling on the Bourse' is much less gloomy. To-day there was a general rise in prices, Panama Canal shares advancing 12 francs, Rio Tintos 11 francs and Suez Canal 6 francs. The Cabinet has decided that when the committee's report on the Bankruptcy bill is presented to the Senate on Friday the president of that body shall ask leave to inter-rupt the budget debate in order to detach from the Rankruptcy bill an article applicable to the position of the Panana Canal Company, the object being to save it from bankruptcy. HAMILTON COLLEGE MEN DINE.

MANY OLD GRADUATES PRESENT-SPEECHES BY ROBERT S. RUDD AND OTHERS.

The Hamiston College Alumni Association of this city had its annual dinner last night at the Hoffman House. The older graduates here were a little more loyal last night than their younger brethren. But perhaps the presence of so many old, hale and hearty graduates of Hamilton was regarded by those present s a voucher of Hamilton's claims that she gra men strong both in mind and in body. Some forty were present. Judge Charles H. Truax presided, and he jokes of the lawyers present therefore had to be all new and original. Near Judge Truax sat Professors Edward North, C. H. F. Peters, the well-known authority in astronomy; Professors Albert H. Chester and A. H. Evans, John Jay Knox, D. Ogden Bradley, Francis Randall, '28, the old tutor; the Rev. Dr. Henry Kendall, the Rev. Charles E. Knox and Ellhu Root. Among others present were Dr. A. Norton Colonel Emmons Clark, Professor Isaac H. Hall, Gideon W. Davenport, Professor D. H. Cockran, James S. Greves, the Rev. F. A. Johnson, Chauncey S. Truax, the Rev. James H. Hoadley, Professor Chester Doualdson, Professor Clinton Scollard, Charles

B. Curtis, John V. B. Lewis and Dr. John N. Beach. Some interesting remarks were made by Professor North, the Rev. Dr. Kendall, Mr. Randall, Elihu Root, Robert S. Rudd and others. Mr. Rudd thought that a young man to succeed in this city must have a cool head and a steady nerve. He must have an iron four years at Hamilton with those "gentle Western zephyrs," waded through the snow drifts, lived on the west side of the dormitory with its "double windows," he might get through Hie here. A MEETING OF HORSE CAR DRIVERS AND CON-DUCTORS AT COOPER UNION.

The large hall of Cooper Union was crowded last night with the members of District Assembly No. 226, Knights of Labor, composed of drivers and conductors of the various horse-car lines in this city, to hear General Master Workman T. V. Powderly, T. P. McGuire, and A. W. Wright, of Toronto, discuss questions relative to the Knights of Labor. James Magee presided, and after a short speech, in which he referred to the annextation of Canada, introduced T. P. McGuire, who was cordially received, and spoke at

Powderly was then introduced and was received enthusiastically. He made a long speech, in the course of which he said: "A few months ago we were con-nected in the public mind with Anarchists and dynamite, but it is not true. You may have heard of services and money for nothing to build up the or-Mr. Powderly also said that with the help of the new Executive Board he intended to stir up every a law passed protecting more effectually the lives of working men. On the political question he said: "I want you to meddle with politics; I do not want your interest to stop after election day; you must agitate the whole time for righteous laws without being chained to the charlot wheels of party prejudice."

The speaker touched on the trouble in District Assembly 49, which he deplored, and he appealed to all to forgive and forget hard words, and combine to build up that organization which was once so pew-erful in this city. After Mr. Powderly's address, Mr. Magec presented him with a gold cane inscribed with the name and emblems of District Assembly 226. The meeting broke up with loud cheers for Powderly and James Magec.

TALK OF THE CONTINENT. | THE NEW MONTEFIORE HOME.

DEDICATION EXERCISES YESTERDAY.

SPEECHES BY CARL SCHUEZ AND MAYOR HEWITT -DESCRIPTION OF THE BUILDING.

That portion of the Grand Boulevard which runs between One-hundred and-twenty-ninth and One-hundred-and-thirtieth sts. was yesterday afternoon the scene of a huge muster of private carriages and The occasion was the dedication of the new Monteflore Home for Chronic Invalids, as institution supported by the Hebrew community for charity's sake and in honor of the great modern patriarch from whom the home takes its name. The invitations to the dedication ceremony numbered upward of 7,000, but resterday the 1,700 persons who actually re sponded to the call were more than sufficient to present were Theodore W. Myers, J. Strauss, Carl Schurz, Julian Nathan, the Rev. Dr. Gotthell, Henry P. Mendel, the Rev. H. S. Jacobs, Julius J. Lyons, L. Strauss, Judge M. S. Isaacs, L. Rosenfeld, Dr. Kobler, S. Neustadt, Lewis Lyon, W. Cholle, J. Cholle, Henry Newman, M. W. Mendel, Jacob Schiff, Louis Gans, Henry S. Allen, Isaac Eppinger, Joseph Waxelbaum and Levi Bamberger.

The programme opened promptly at 2 o'clock with the singing of an anthem, "Charity," by the children of the Hebrew Orphan Asylum. Then the Rev. Henry S. Jacobs made the opening puryer, after which Isaac Eppinger, on behalf of the Building Committee, presented a golden key to Jacob Schiff, president of the home, in recognition of his work in support of the home. Mr. Schiff, in response, briefly reviewed the history of the charity from the time of its inception, and announced $170,000 as the receipts from the Hebrew fair held last winter. Mayo Hewitt had a place on the programme, and there uch disappointment as time passed on and he failed to appear. Carl Schurz delivered an oration and then, just as the crowd had resigned itself to the loss of the Mayor, he was seen making his way up the centre aisle of the synagogue in which the neeting was held.

The Mayor's speech was received with constant applause, and he made one felicitous point when h said that if the Hebrews were unjustly sneered at in some quarters for their taient in money getting, they might claim the reputation of knowing how to spend wealth when they acquired it. Prayer and bymn-singing brought the programme to a close.

The style of the new building is French renaissan terior decoration. The home fronts on the Boulevard and covers the entire block from One-hundred andand covers the entire block from One-hundred-andtwenty-ninth to One-hundred-and-thirtiesh six. There are main staircase halls, reception and directors' rooms, a synagogue, prettily decorated in the Moresque fashion, dining and various sitting-rooms, with open fire-places, kitchens and laundries, while there are large wards, small wards and wards for one patient. In addition may be mentioned pantires, lockers, linen-rooms, storcrooms and lavatories in profusion. While all the rooms are large and lofty, every available inch of space has been made use of. The heating is by indirect radiation, and the ventilation is so arranged that each room has at least one flue that exhausts the foul air both in winter and summer. Erunner & Tryon and Albert Bachmann are the architects. Beds for 300 patients are provided and the charity is open to all persons, irrespective of creed.

DOES AN ENGLISH DECISION HOLD HERE

A WIFE SUES HER HUSBAND FOR A CLAIM AWARDED TO HER IN THE BRITISH COURTS.

George Frederick Munn, an American artist and a pupil of Munkacsy, met Miss Helen Hawley in London prior to 1882, and in that year they were married. an ante-nuptial agreement, which was confirmed after the marriage, he gave her a life estate in securities inherited from his father valued at $33,000. In 1880 this agreement was changed so as to give him a life interest in the property with a reversion to her at his death. The securities were deposited with his brotherin-law, Joseph M. Cook, who lives in this city, whose hands they still are. The wife claimed that the first agreement was the only valid one and that she was entitled to the proceeds during her life. She brought suit in England to enforce her claim, and judgment was rendered in her favor. A suit was then begun in this city on behalf of the wife to obtain the enforcement here of the rights adjudicated in Munn came to this country to live in 1887, and since then has remained with his brothers-in-law, Carrett Pierre and Cook. His wife still remains in England. The question at issue in the trial, which took place yesterday before Justice Barrett in the me Court, Special Term, was whether the English dectsion was binding in this country. Mr. Munn and his two brothers-in-law are the defendants in the suit, and they claim that the judgment in England was obtained by fraud. In support of this documentary evidence, principally consisting of letters written by the wife, was given to show that Munn's mind was in such an enfeedled condition at the time the judgment was rendered in England that he was incapable of even directing a lawyer to conduct his defence.

Letters from Mrs. Munn to her husband's sister, who is the wife of Mr. Pierre, were read, in which she said that her husband was out of his mind, was under the influence of a woman and was afflicted with melancholia and excitability, and was unmanage able. Charles Tracy appeared for the plaintiff and Austen G. Fox for the defandant. The decision was reserved.

CANDIDATES IN THE ILLINOIS G. A. B. Monticello, Ill., Dec. 18 (Special).-There will be a spirited contest for the position of Commander-in-Chief of the Department of Illinois G. A. R., ther being three candidates, all popular men-Colonel W. L. Distine, of Quincy; Colonel A. D. Cadwalader, of Lincoln, and General J. H. Martin, of Salem. Colonels Distine and Cadwalader were candidates at the last encampment, but were defeated by Coloni James A. sexton, of Chicago. General Martin was the chalman of the Republican State Committee and is president of the Southern Illinois Soldiers' Reunion Association.

GAMES OF THE YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE, The Young Men's Institute gymnasium was crowded tast evening at the winter gymnastic entertainment given by the members. Some exceptionally good parallel bar work was dens by Willam Koerber, W. G. Pittman, R. Linder, R. A. Brady, John Fimpel, G. Linder, G. W. Burke and R. Gahan. An amusing contest was the Indian club race. Lines of Indian clubs were placed across the stage, and at the further end of each a man was stationed. The contestants gathered in the clubs as in the old-fashioned potato race, and ended by seizing in the old-rashioned posts the line and bearing him to the the man at the and of the line and bearing him to the goal. Charles Kiey, Edward Nicola, George Schnelder and Henry W. Schneider contested, the latter being the team, composed of George Linner, W. Eck. J. J. Phillips and George Gehrung, weight 526 pounds, and the Newark Young Men's Christian Association team, weight 545 pounds, was the most interesting contest of the even-In the first heat the Institute got the drop, and the

by a series of heaves succeeded in pulling their opponents clear off the cleats. Newark secured the drop in the second heat and won by an inch and a quarter. Both teams dropped together on the third heat, but at the end of the three minutes the Institute had pulled the ribbon over the line a quarter of an inch, thus winning the tug.

TO FIX A DATE FOR THE LEAGUE CONVENTION.

The National Convention of the Republican National League will be held to-day at the headquarters in this city. This meeting is likely to be of short duration, for only a few delegates from other States will be here, and about the only business transacted will be to fix a date,

MRS. THUEBER AND THE CONSERVATORY. Mrs. Thurber has sent the following letter to this office:

My attention has been called to an article in The Tribune, printed under the caption of "Trouble in a Conservatory of Music." While I regret that the dictum and et alteram parten should not have suggested the advisability of seesing information on the subject touched upon from all the parties interested in the case, I am sure you will grant me space to answer the principal assertions put forth in your columns.

1. "shortness of funds," as the writer of the article expresses it, has nothing to do with the matter in hand. Every teacher in and employe of the National Con-Every teacher in and employe of the National Con-servatory of Music has for years received his or het salary, and Mr. Bouhy has been paid monthly in ad-vance. The only money claimed to be due is demanded by Mme. Fursch-Madi, and is withheld on the ground that Mme. Fursch-Madi failed to perform the duties that Mme. Fursch-Madi failed to perform the duties devolving upon her.

2. There has been no tender of a resignation " of a provisional sort." Mr. Bouhy has resigned his position, and the Board has accepted his resignation.

3. The members of the operatic class have not threatened to depart, and the contracts between them and the National Conservatory make no mention whatever of Mr. Bouhy. The students of the Conservatory receive the instruction the Board decides upon giving them, but that Board does not bind itself to provide any one instructor. Some of the students may have sympathy for Mr. Bouhy, but sentiment is one thing and business another.

and business another.

4. Mr. Bouby has the right to engage teachers and employes, subject to the sanction of the Board, but the privilege of enlarging the sphere of usefulness of the Conservatory is reserved by the Board, and Mr. Bouby's objections to the engagement of Mr. Joseffy were neither warranted by the terms of his engagement nor based upon common sense.

engagement, etc., I shall not take pains to contradict. They will be set at rest by the continuance of studies at the Conservatory under proper direction, and the fruits of these studies will, I know, convince the public that the Board of that institution has acted in this, as in other matters, for the best interests of all concerned.
